Stadgracht

An aerial night photograph of Amsterdam, The Netherlands. The city is illuminated by streetlights and building lights, with the warm glow of the sunset or sunrise sky in the background. The skyline is dominated by several large, historic churches with prominent domes and spires. In the foreground, a busy canal bridge is visible, with several buses and cars crossing it. The water of the canal reflects the city lights.

CITY TRIPS

The Netherlands

A wide-angle photograph of a row of historic Dutch canal houses in Amsterdam. The buildings are multi-storied with varied facades in shades of red, brown, and blue. They feature numerous windows, some with shutters, and ornate gables. The houses are situated along a canal, with their reflection clearly visible in the calm water. Several cars are parked along the street in front of the houses, and a few small boats are visible in the canal. The sky is a clear, pale blue.

-De Bijenkorf

A wide-angle photograph of a crowded beach on a sunny day. In the background, a long wooden pier extends into the sea, topped with a large Ferris wheel and other structures. The beach is filled with people of all ages, many of whom are wading or swimming in the shallow water. The sky is clear and blue. The text 'Scheveningen and The Hague' is overlaid in the center in a white, serif font.
