

Civic Orientation Course

Information about Finland in English 17.9.–14.11.2024

Do you live in Vantaa? Do you want to know more about Finland and your rights?

On this course, you will learn about Finnish society. The course topics are discussed in a group under the guidance of a teacher and learned together.

The course is for you if you are not working, not looking for work right now, or studying at the moment. You may be, for example, on parental leave with children, or a pensioner.

If you are a job seeker, ask your personal TE Services coach about the course.

What will you learn about in class?

- ✓ Finnish society and its values
- ✓ Living in Finland
- ✓ Family life and children
- ✓ Your rights and responsibilities
- ✓ Working and studying in Finland
- ✓ Services (e.g., Kela, Migri, Vero)
- ✓ Health and aging
- ✓ Other important aspects of everyday life in Finland

The course is organized by CareeriaPlus Oy in cooperation with the City of Vantaa and the Uusimaa ELY Centre.
