Other notes regarding the child's travel (e.g. school transportation)

5. COMMUNICATION *

The instructor of the after-school activities shall be informed of the child's absences and temporary changes in the manner agreed together.

The consent of the guardian is needed for the communication of even everyday issues related to the child's wellbeing between the school and after-school activities. The organizer of the after-school activity and its staff commits to not give to third party any information on the customer's privacy, financial status, or social and health welfare services.

I allow that the school's principal / class teacher / special education teacher or student welfare team (school nurse, school psychologist, student welfare officer) and both the organizer and instructor of after-school activities may disclose to each other information required for arranging after school activities for the child. For the transfer of information, the instructor in charge of the after-school activities can, if necessary, view the child's lesson notes in the Wilma system. The permission can be revoked at any time by notifying the instructor of the after-school activities in writing.

I do not allow any information on my child to be disclosed.

6. ESSENTIAL INFORMATION FOR ORGANIZING THE ACTIVITIES

The instructors of the after-school activities do not receive information about the child from the school or preschool automatically. Here you can mention other considerations related to the child (e.g. special diets, allergies, possible diseases or regular medication, support needs and friendships).
